BOWRAL GOLF CLUB

KANGALOON ROAD BOWRAL NSW 2576

Dear future Member,

Thank you for your Membership enquiry.

Bowral Golf Club is an established club that provides not only a great golf course, but a social centre that holds special member events regularly. Members are justly proud of their facility and we hope that you, in applying for Membership will find the nature of this club enjoyable.

Bowral Golf Club was established in 1901, the Clubhouse provides a real club feel with friendly members and staff, poker machines were voted out around the turn of the century. There are plenty of historical items on show from 100 year old trophies to a world war one flag retrieved from a Turkish officer near Palestine in 1917, open fire places provides warmth and ambience. As we move with the times we are mindful of maintaining our traditions of the past. In 1901 the Club had no playing area of its own. Members of the new Club played for the first two years by invitation on a private nine hole course owned by Mr. C. J. Royle, one of the foundation Members. After this, play moved to a large area of land opposite the Bowral hospital, part of this land is now occupied by Bradman Oval. The next site for Bowral Golf Club was on the West side of the railway line, it was a nine hole course with sand greens. Part of this property is now occupied by the Gibraltar Hotel. The Club was advised in 1915 that the lease on this land would come to an end.

In mid 1917 an area of 36 acres on Kangaloon Rd was purchased from Edwin Boardman, and a new Clubhouse was completed on this land in June 1919. A nine hole course was laid out by Dan Soutar. In 1920 members were advised that a further 49 acres of land had been acquired to extend the course to 18 holes. The additional layout was designed by Carnegie Clark. In 1950 a further 5.7 acres was acquired and was used for the present 15th hole.

In the recent years many course improvements has been made on the course and in the clubhouse. Fairway extentsions, new bridges, a new tee, distance markers, directions signs, tree plantings, new furniture, concrete paths. In the clubhouse improvemnts include new furniture and painting. Membership numbers continues to rise and we welcome your application.

Bowral Golf Club's mission

"To provide an enjoyable golf and club experience in a welcoming atmosphere to members and guests whilst maintaining the legacy of our history and traditions."

Kevin Kenny,
Secretary Manager.
